PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE- CITADEL 1969

The Bridge Builder

An old man going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and deep and wide
Through which was flowing a sullen tide;
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
The sullen stream held no fears for him;
But he turned when safe on the other side
And built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting strength with building
here,
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again will pass this way,
You have crossed the chasm deep and wide,
Why build you this bridge at the eventide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head,
"Good friend, in the path I have come,"
he said,
"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been naught to me,
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be;
He too must cross in the twilight dim,
Good friend, I am building the bridge for him."

Will Allen Dromgogle

During the days of praying for and the construction of Pioneer Valley Academy this poem in the minds of many people depicted the purpose of building such an Academy. The school was not being built to have nice buildings, it was being constructed that young men and young women might find a place where they could profit by the experience of those who had walked the way before them.

Even today this poem expresses the desire of the faculty for the youth of this school. It is our prayer that you might find your experience here this year a bridge between the experiences of this life and the joys of eternal life.

H. D. Lawson, Principal

Dedication

What Is Dedication?

It is driving a carload of teenagers to a seminar appointment

It is coaching a basketball team

It is a cheerful smile for everyone

It is giving out sack suppers on Wednesday evening

It is the quiet inspiration of a Vesper service

It is A.S.B. committee meetings
at lunch time

It is friendship, guidance, and understanding.

For these things and many more,
we dedicate this CITADEL 1969
to you,

Mr. And Mrs. Clyde Newmyer

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

Pioneer Valley Academy is proud to honor its first four-year graduates.
