 The Citadel Staff
 proudly presents
 CITADEL 1971

Miss Mc Neal, Wed.
 At our meeting today the staff unanimously agreed to dedicate the book to Mr. Proctor.
 He's a hard worker - always ready to help when needed - dependable.
 Somehow he's managed to stick with the same class for 4 yrs. The Seniors think he's done a terrific job as sponsor.
 He's been a good example
 A willing witness for Christ
 He's friendly - (corny jokes)
 You never hear the kids gripe about him
 Mainly: The kids like him...
 So:
 CITADEL '71
 we dedicate you to Mr. Proctor!

" . . . the discipline of well-regulated labor is . . . essential to the securing of a strong, active mind and a noble character."

3T 307:2

Wondering . . .

Observing . . .

Reassuring . . .

Knowing . . .

These four words have probably resulted in more successful people, in the true sense of the word success, than most people are or ever will be aware of.

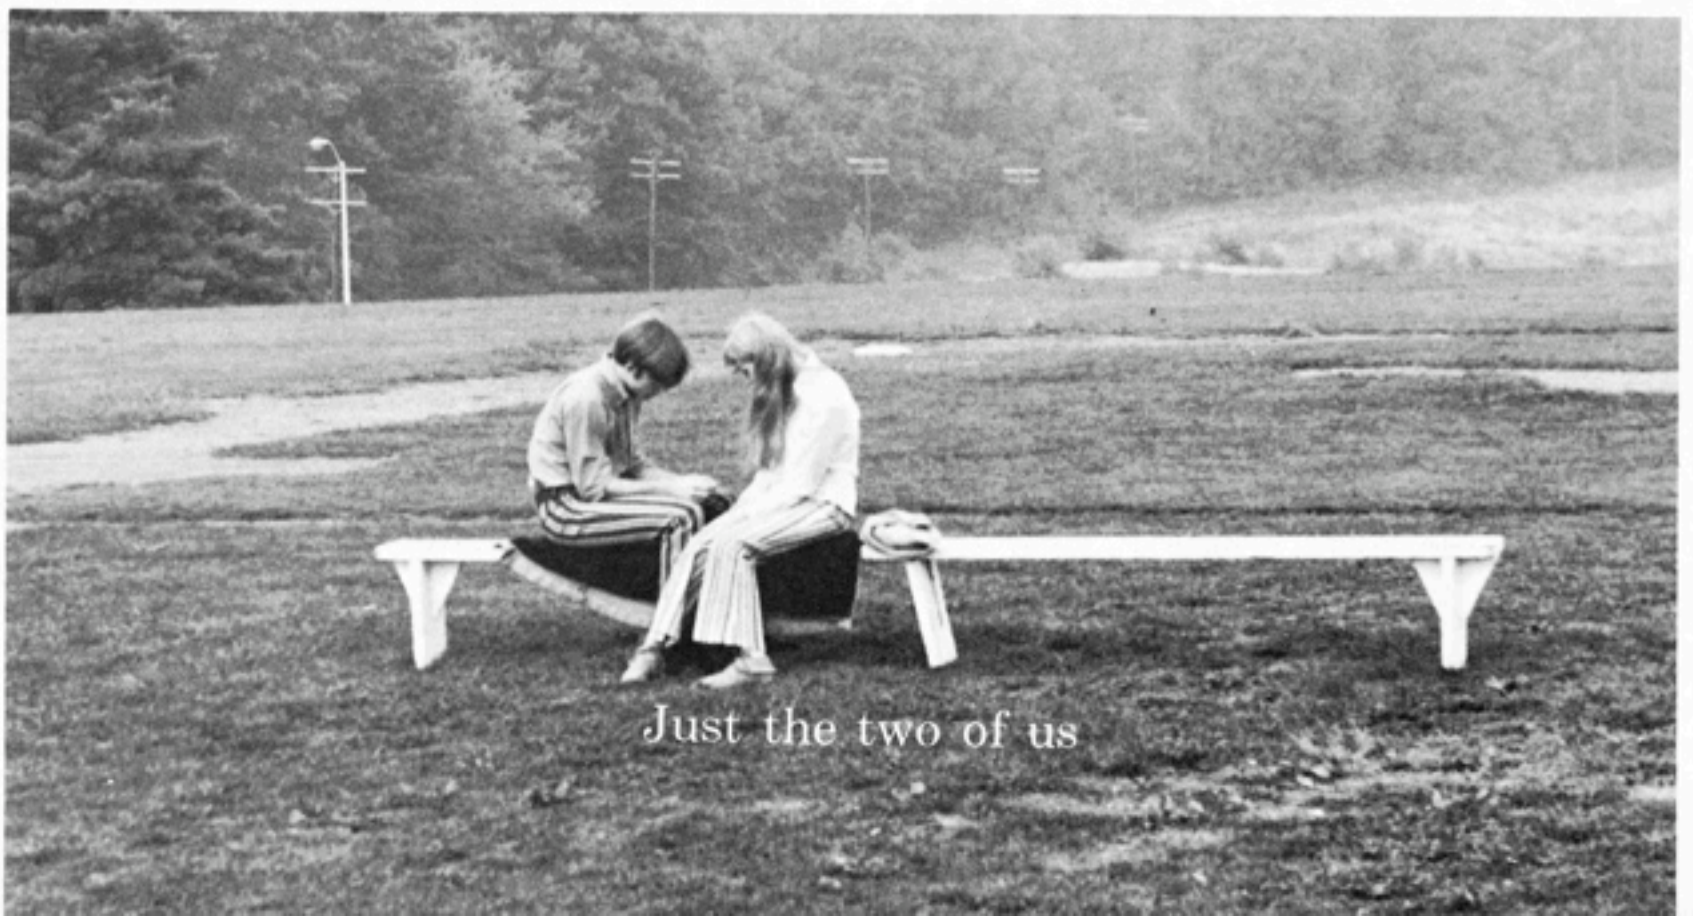

A little child comes into the big world and he spends much of his early life Wondering what it's all about. He wonders if he will be a man someday, he wonders if he will own his home someday -- wondering, always alert and wondering. As he grows he begins Observing the people and the things about him more seriously. He observes the labors of those who seemingly have reached success and those who are striving to reach success -- observing, always observing. Throughout the next stage of his life he sets about Reassuring the world around him that he too is achieving manhood and the age of responsibility. He is reassuring himself that success is possible only if he unites his efforts with those of others who are traveling the same road -- reassuring, by his actions he is always reassuring. Finally he finds his niche in life and looks forward and backwards Knowing that he's where he is because of what he has been; knowing he didn't buy his goal and it wasn't handed to him. He lives knowing that success is possible for others because it was possible for him; and he had learned that it was largely based on Wondering . . . Observing . . . Reassuring . . . Knowing.

BECAUSE OF FRIENDS

The love for old acquaintances pulls hard.

Just the two of us

To accept the challenge of probing
the depths of a new personality

To make your own decisions live your own life
to be independent.

Yet deep in the heart of each a twinge of remorse is felt.

To live amongst those who are all alike yet unique individuals.

Happiness is not expecting a letter but finding one anyway

To partake in events planned for you.

TO GRADUATE . . .

You have your own answers to the question
“Why were you here?”

But each of us has one ultimate goal.

Soon a class will have accomplished this

Consciously,

Subconsciously,

Intellect annuls fate.
So far as a man thinks, he is free.
Harry Haugen, President

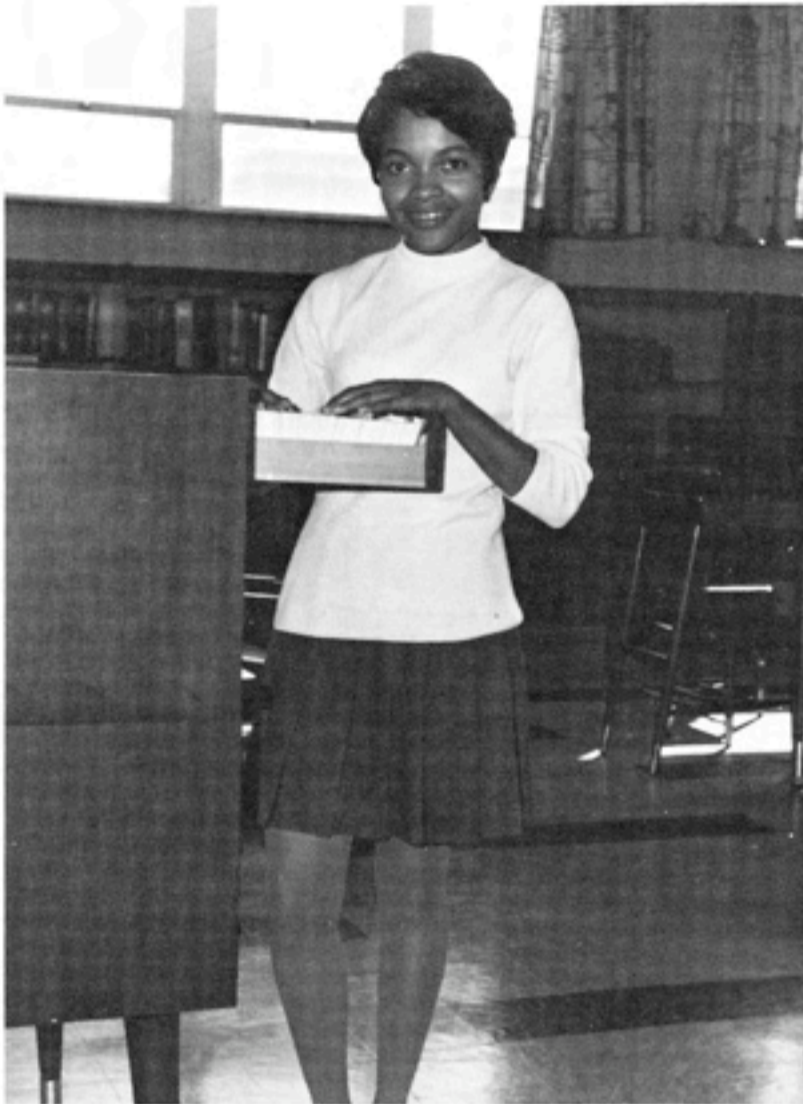

The concentration and aggressiveness used in sports, if applied to all the other activities of life, will produce success.
Ron Nieb, Treasurer

There are places I'll remember all my life
Though some have changed, some forever not for better.
Patience Petro, Vice-President

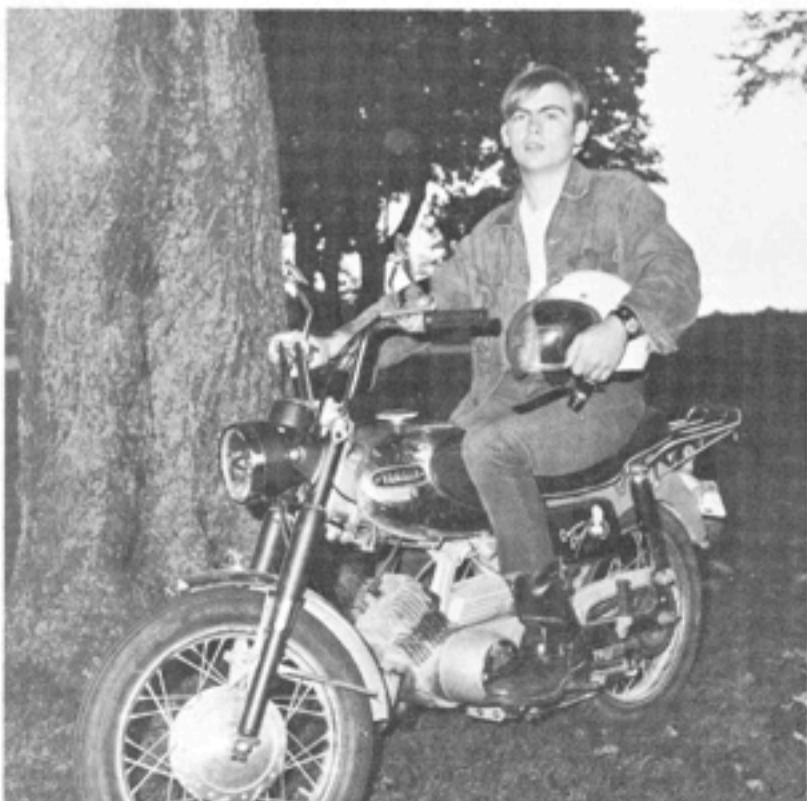

Think only of the things in life that make you happy and you'll last a lot longer . . . just try and see.
Rhunette McCollum, Secretary

We too often love things and use people when we should be using things and loving people.
Turie Martin, Sgt.-at-arms

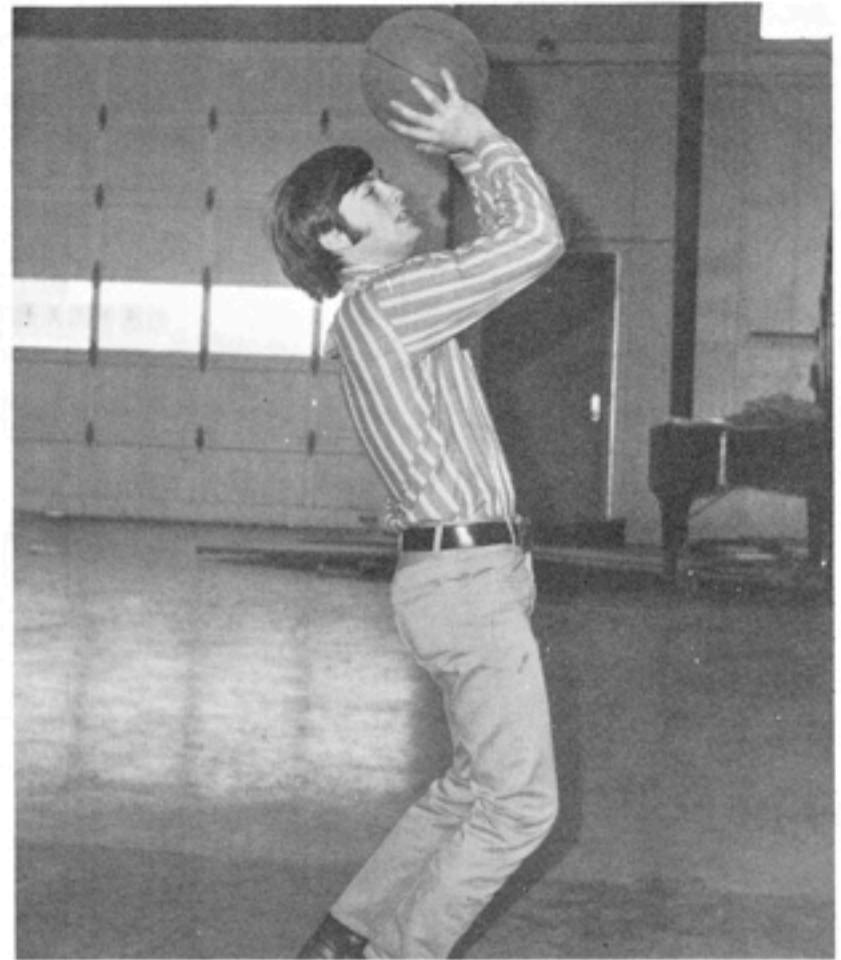

If a man does not keep pace with his companions perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Hugh Sipowicz, Pastor

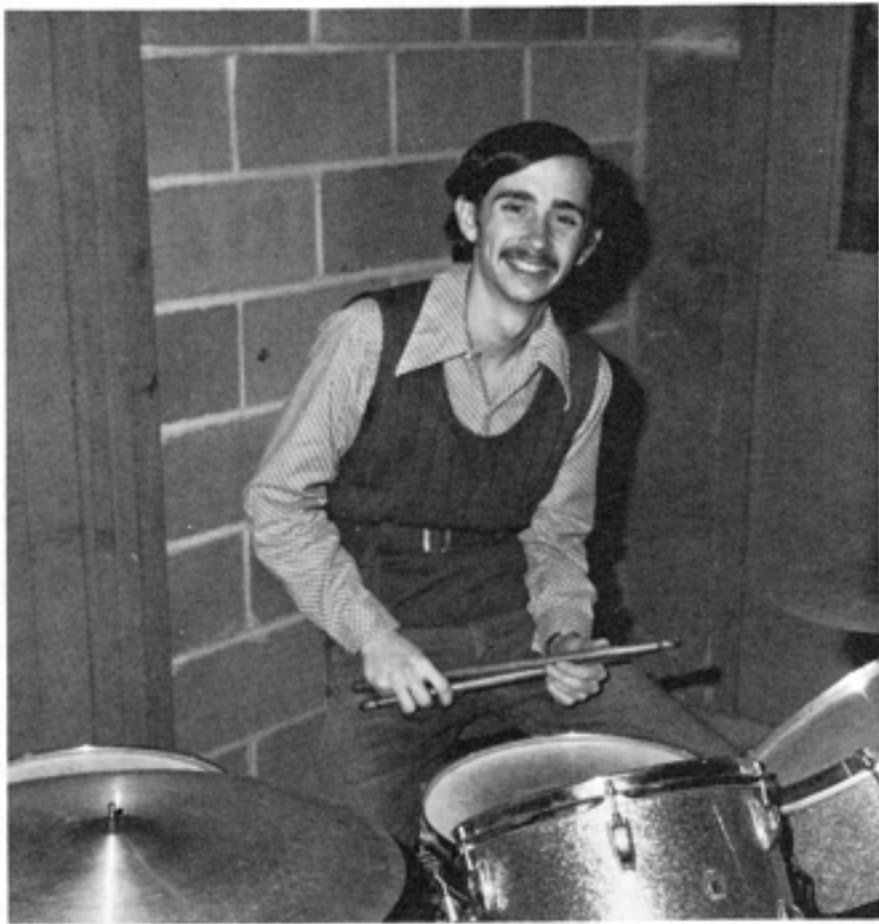

Going down that long lonesome highway.
Don Nickerson, Sgt.-at-arms

If they can't take a joke -----,
Don Buchholz

Help the little people.
Doug Timms

Without music
life would be a mistake.
Dave Randall

I am the master of my fate
I am the captain of my soul
Hans Peter Shmigelsky

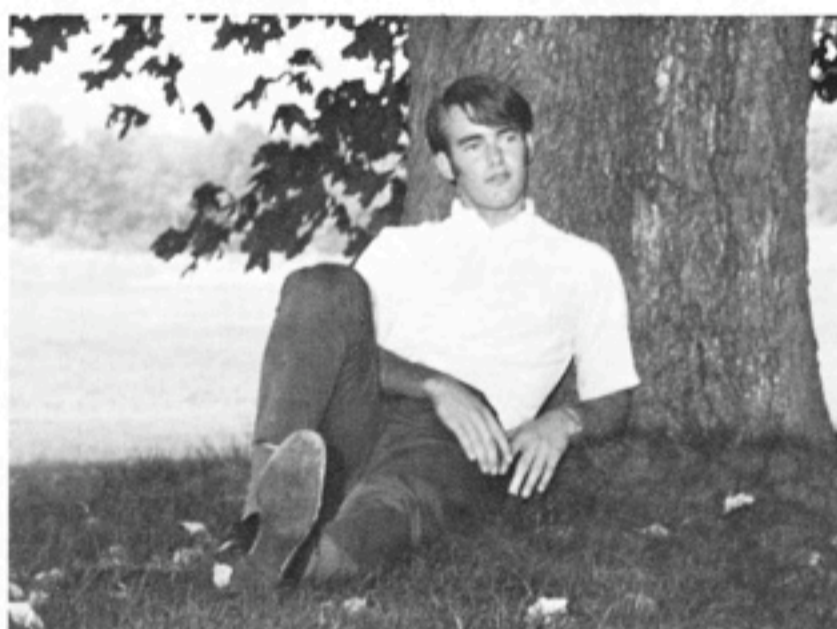

I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had no where else to go.
Kathy Williamson

Lady Willpower, it's now or never,
Jackie Ham

What ponderest thou?
You see things as they are and ask why,
I see things as they are not and ask why not!
Sheila Gordon

Commit your work to the Lord,
then it will succeed.
Ralph Sharp

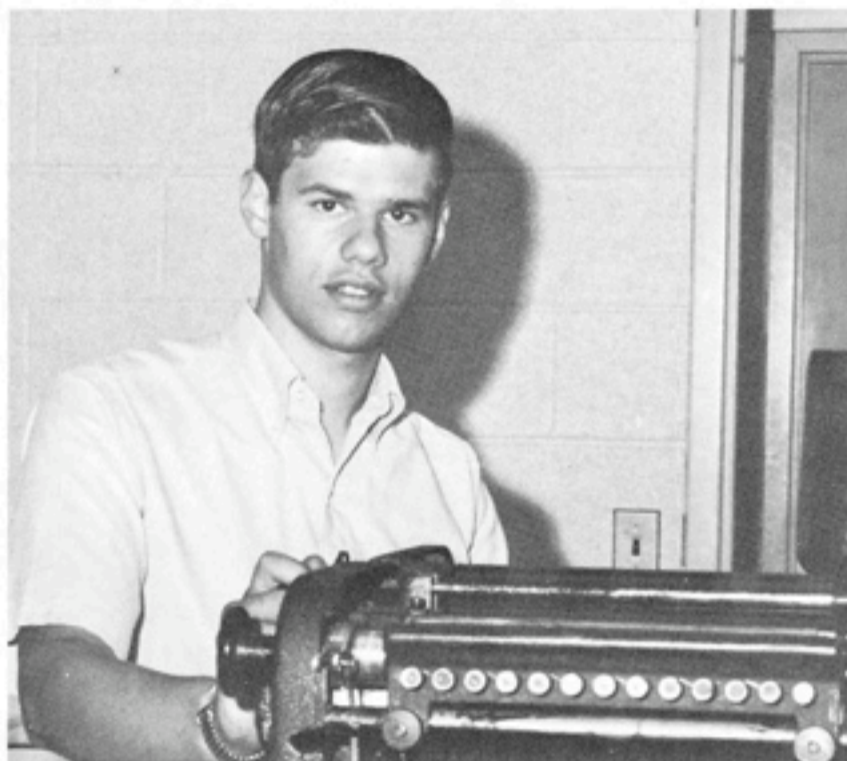

To see a world in a grain of sand
And a Heaven in a wild flower.
Cindy Rich

You haven't lived 'till you find a true companion.
Lynn-Marie Fitzgerald

A man of few words, but words of wisdom.
Arnold Mills

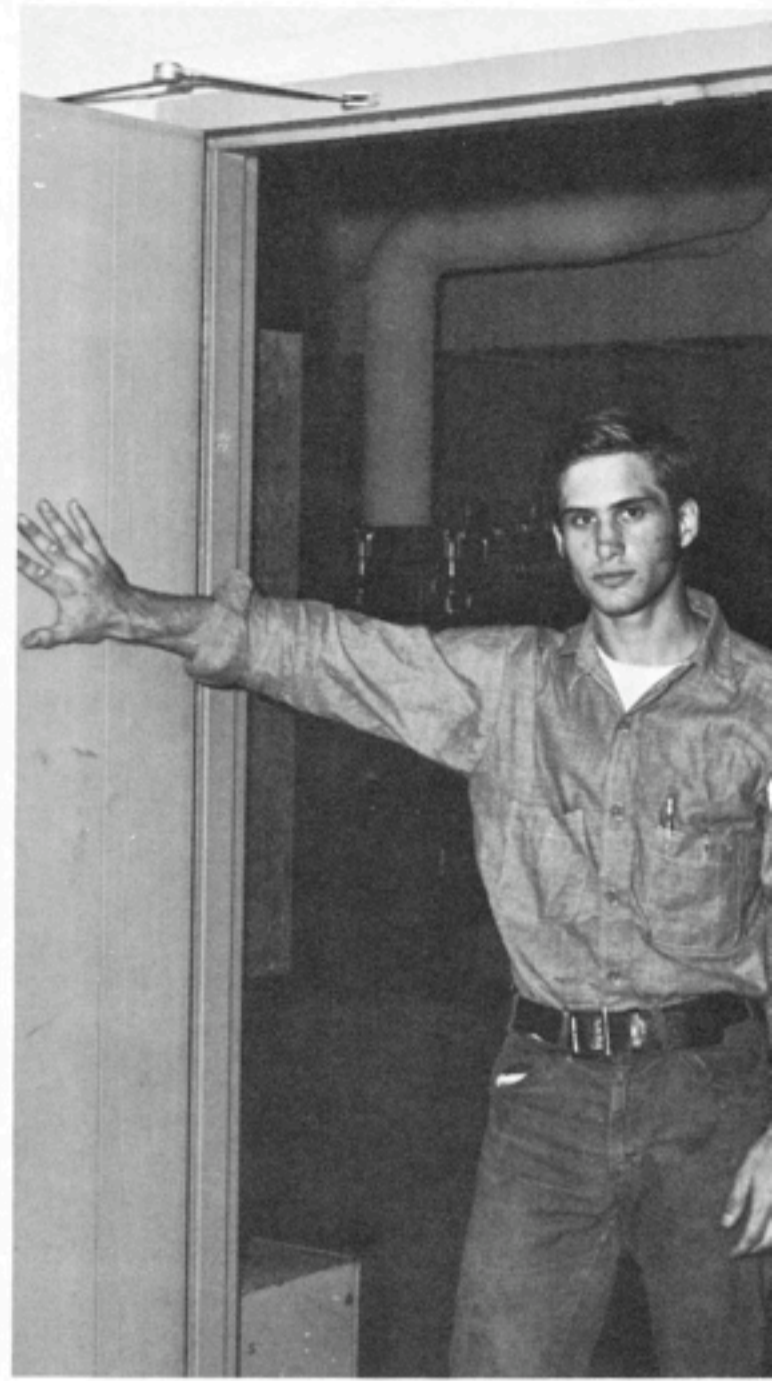

Keep smiling! It makes people wonder what you've been up to.
Patti Medeiros

Every individual has a place to fill in the world and is important in some respect whether he chooses to be so or not.
Allan Dorn

Where is she?
Gary Hoisington

When you have nothing left but God;
Then you become aware that God is enough.
Lynda Tyler

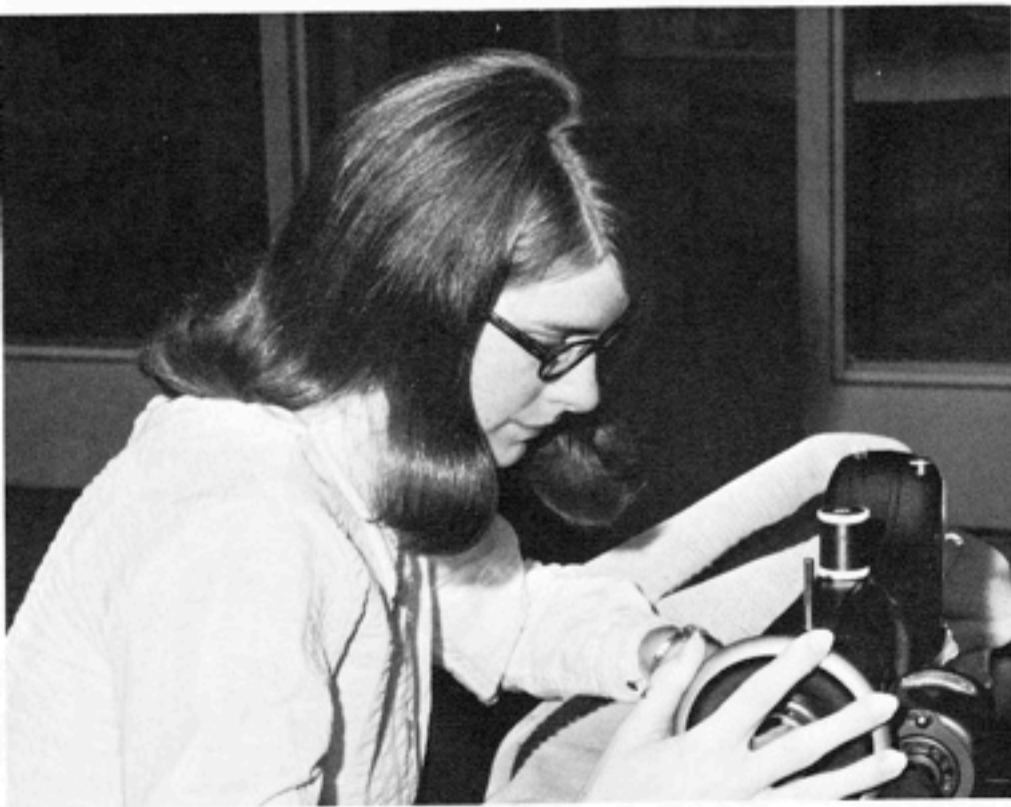

Life is a mirror;
If you frown at it, it frowns back;
If you smile, it returns the greeting.
Bonnie Matterand

Good words cost nothing, but are worth much.
Pat Borgersen

There is rapture on the lonely shore . . .
There is society where none intrude
Caron Nairn

Aim high, never give up
and you will achieve your goal
Rhonda Gadway

My insanity is just an intelligent mind over-taxed.

Janice Lee

Determination makes the impossible -- possible
Mark Kuczma

Today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every vision of tomorrow a vision of hope.

Marlene Anderson

I sought my soul
But my soul I could not see
I sought my God
But my God eluded me.
I sought my brother
And I found all three.

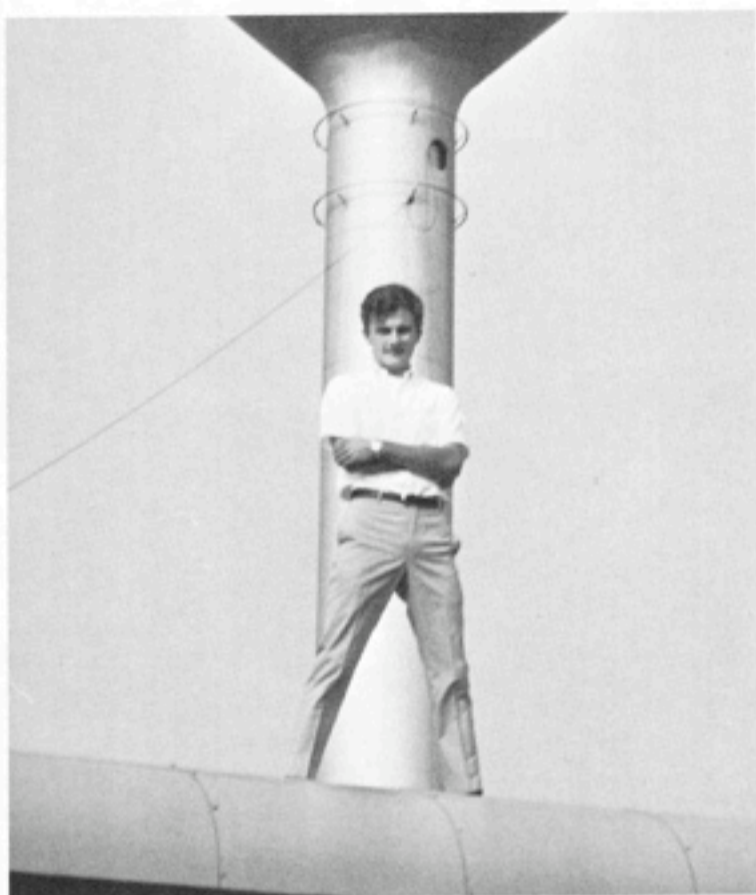

Sue Potter

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways . . .
Alex Demars

What is a friend?
A friend is someone with whom you dare be yourself.
Martha Knowlton

Time stands still.
Dwight Richardson

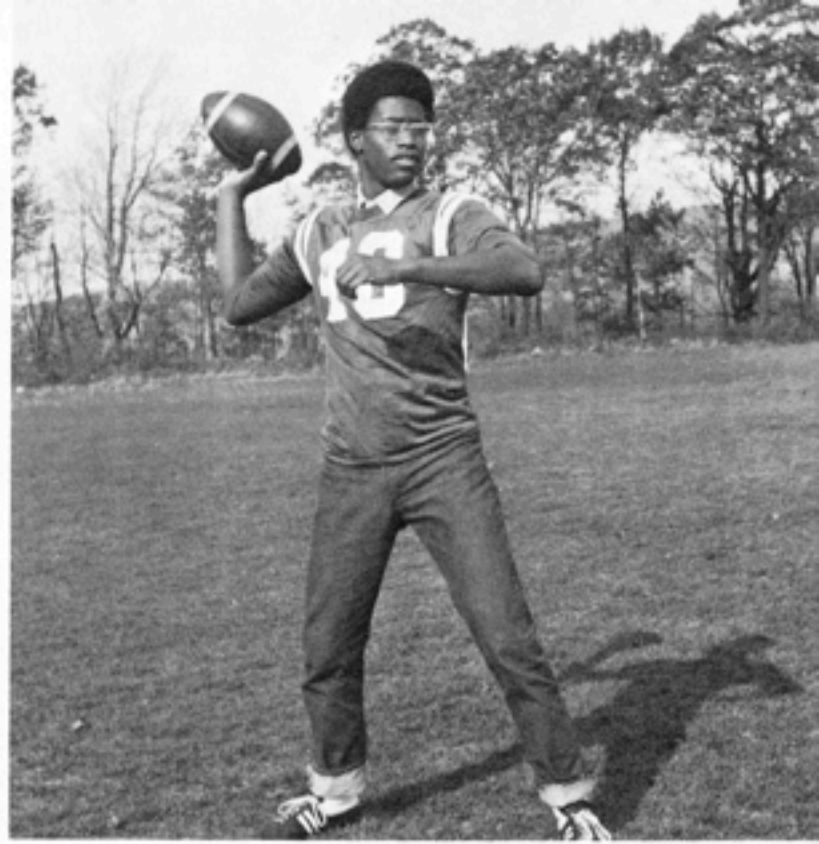

United we stand . . .
Divided we fall.
Yvonne Anderson

Today is Yesterday's plan put into action.
Barbara Pitkin

Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.
Vicky Laing

Only the strong, with God's help, survive.
Calvin Lindo

Half of what I say is meaningless
but I say it so the other may reach you.
Barbara Sprague

Today Germany . . . Tomorrow the world.
Dean Bouland

Success begins with a fellow's will and it's all in the state of mind.
Barbara Knox

I don't want nobody to give me nothing, open up the door and I'll get it myself.
Darrell Cutler

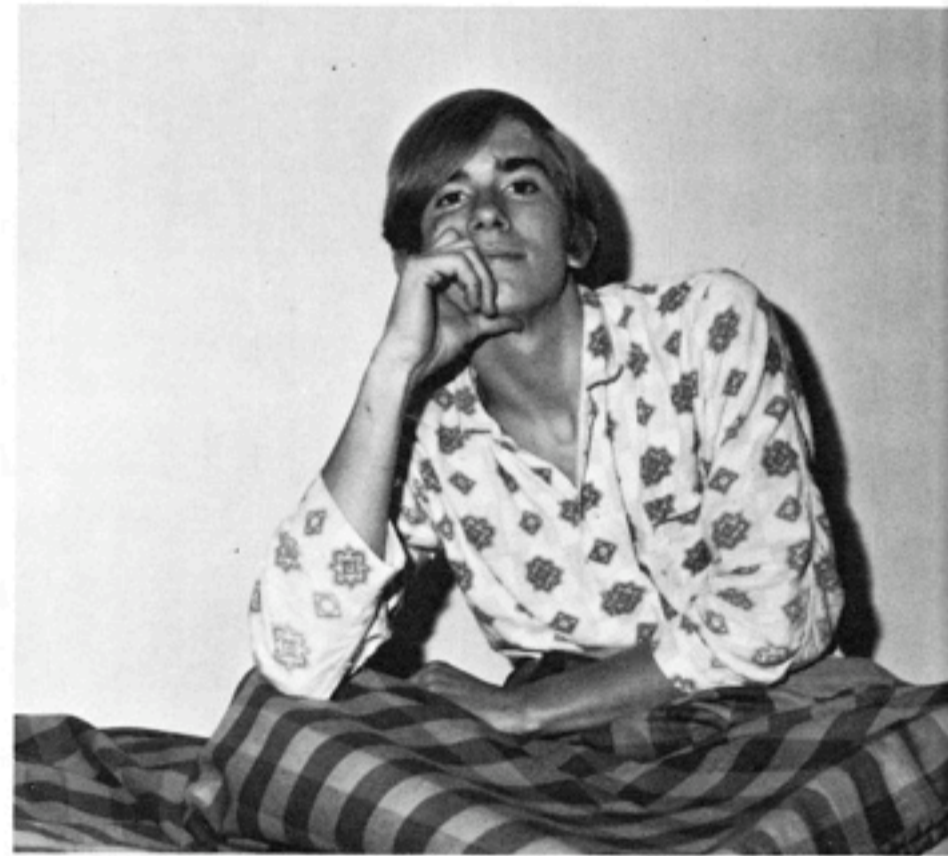

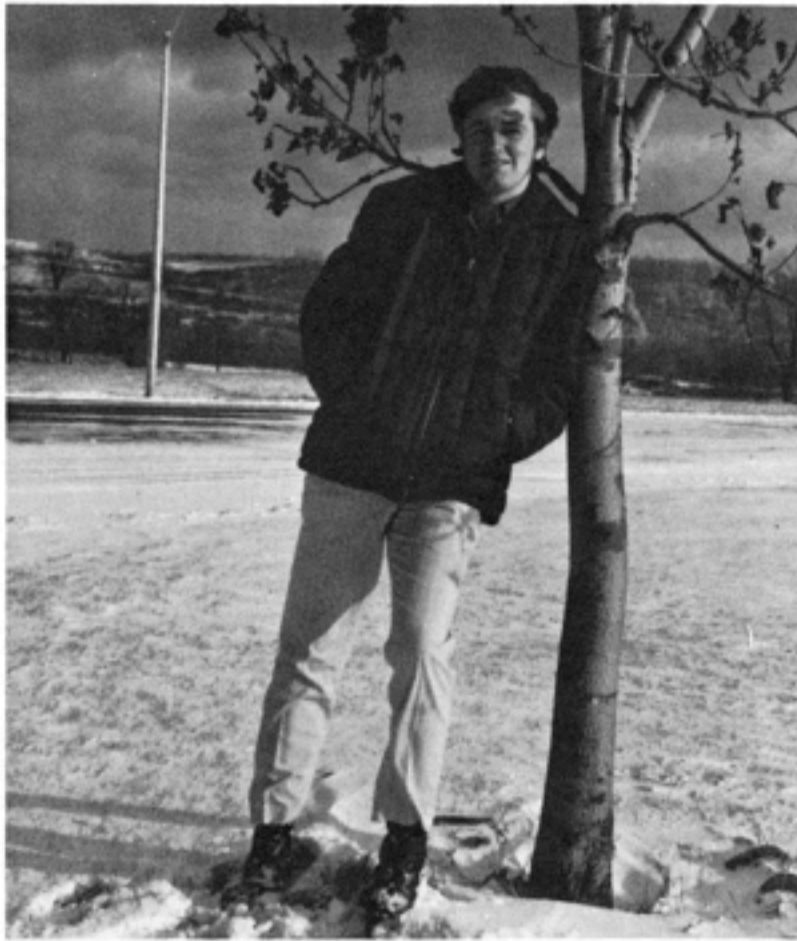

Hope for the best, get ready for the worst, then take what God chooses to send.
Cindy Pettengill

Into every life some leaves must fall.
Ron Krueger

Interest is the soil in which Intelligence and knowledge grow.
Merline Bowen

The only gift is a portion of thyself.
Dennis Farley

Good times, bad times
you know I've had my share.
Steve Brinkman

You have only one life to live,
so make the best of it while you're here.
Bob Thomas

"Denk Schnee"
Allen Aho

I would walk with all those who walk
I would not stand still to watch the procession passing by.
Carolyn Farley

Those who dream by day are cognizant of many things which escape those who dream only by nite.
Leon Staley

Greater love hath no man that he should give his life for a friend.
Joe Kolesnikoff

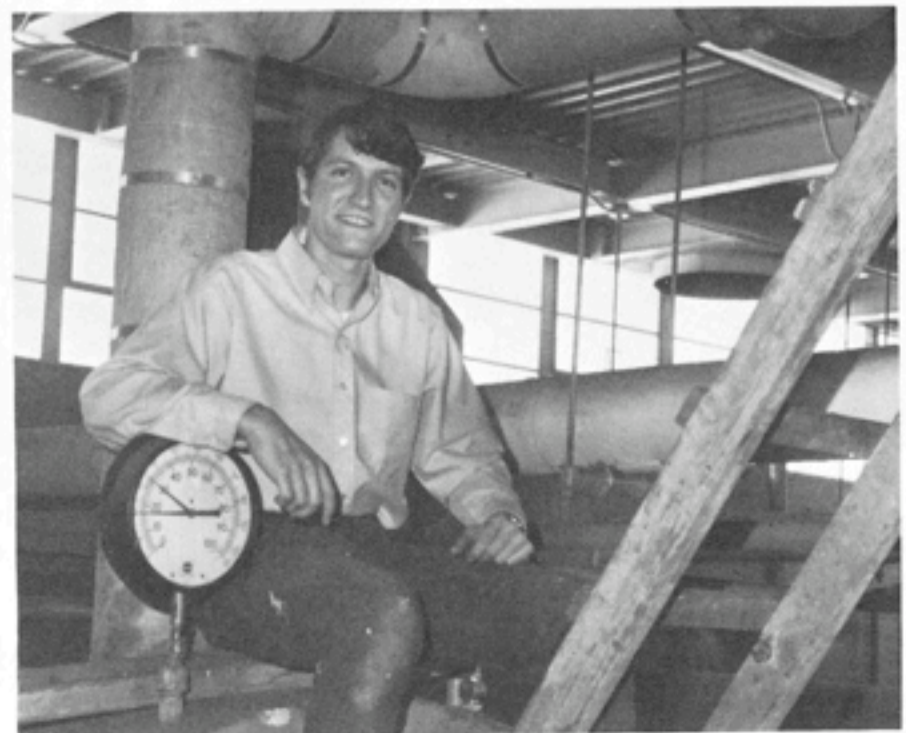

Cheer up! The worst is yet to come.
Brent Smith

The mind in itself can make a heaven out of hell, and a hell out of heaven.
Micky Hutchinson

Let both sides explore what problems unite us instead of laboring those problems which divide us.
James Dunn

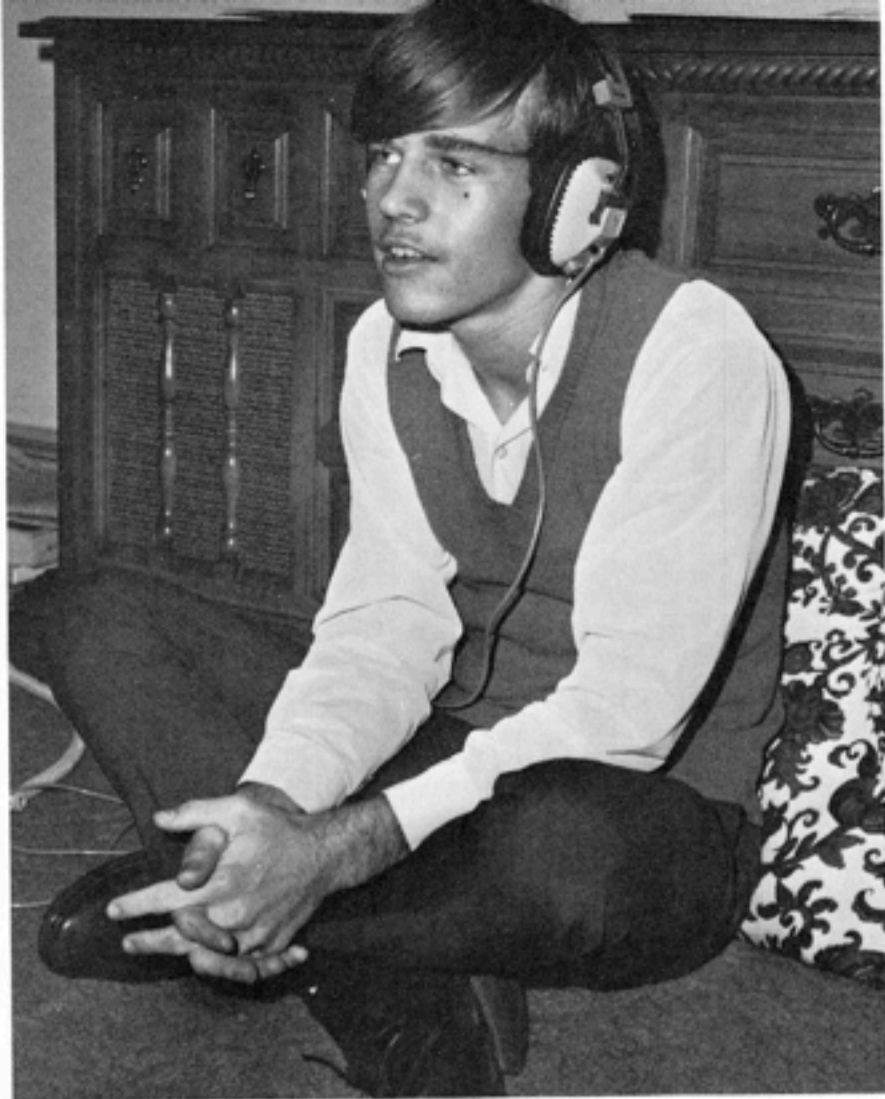

Happiness is something to do,
someone to love,
something to hope for.
Laurie Salamandra

I have promises to keep and miles to go before I sleep.
Frank Parisi

What sunshine is to flowers smiles are to humanity.
Lorna Smead

If studying were the cause of death,
I'd live forever.
Linda Corcoran

Peace and music.
Matt Greer

A day without laughter is not a day at all.
Sharon Seaton

Life is a great bundle of little things.
Peggy Gordon

In the morning where I wandered and listened,
In the woods far away under me.
Patrice Dunn

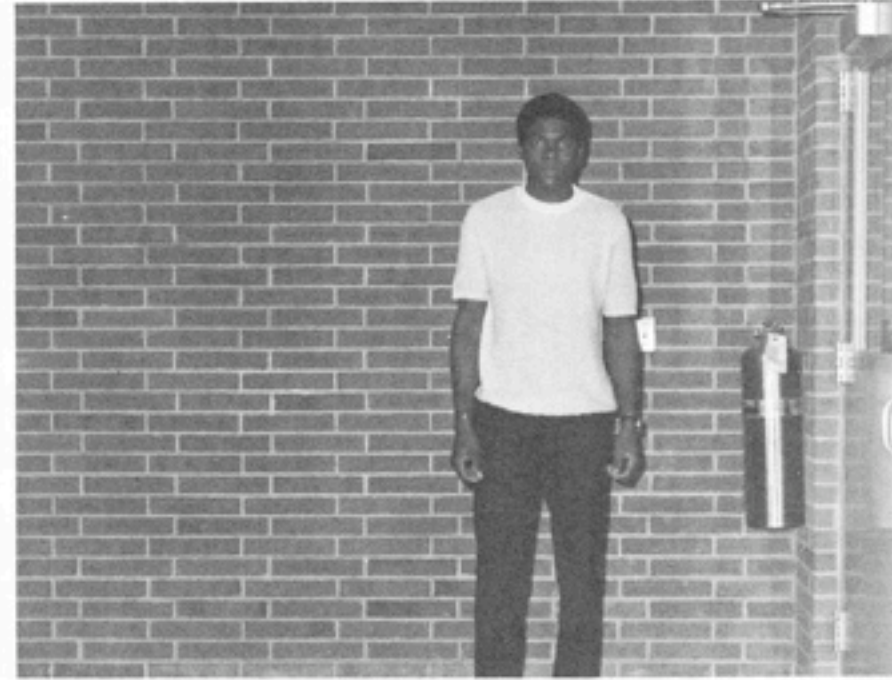

Peace will come, according to plan.
Paul Bookstaver

Thus at the flaming forge of life
Our fortunes must be wrought;
Thus on its sounding anvil shaped
Each burning deed and thought.
Wayne Harlow

Work fascinates me,
I could sit and look at it for hours.
Mike Greer

With God's help and blessings:
you can do anything if you try.
So keep on pushing and don't give up.
Ron Nance

It's better to light one candle than to curse the darkness.
Patra Rhyne

Who am I?
I look happily back at the past am ever aware of the present and look hopefully into the future. I am me and soon will be . . . more.
Ginny Sanchez

A man never turns his back on a friend but works shoulder to shoulder.
Bob Damon

Our friends are our greatest asset in life they are more important to us than any material assets we may possess.
Beverly Knox

Don't worry about your station in life.
Someone is bound to tell you where to get off.
Bob McKay

Peace cannot be kept by force
It can only be achieved by understanding.
