Dear Diary,
I can't believe how fast this year's gone by, but before it ends, I just want to take some time to tell you all about it.

There's so much to remember, so many fun times like Saturday night activities, the banquets, fall and spring picnics, and faculty home parties. The spiritual aspect, such as Leadership Conference, Bible Camp, and weeks of prayer, made me realize how important my Christian friends are to me. These were times when we could draw away from the everyday things and sing and pray together. I think it was these times that brought us the closest.

There were the different organizations and activities I was in, which gave me a break from the routine of classes and added a lot of fun to my year. Sometimes I felt I'd never fit everything in but it worked out all right.

There was so much that made my time here worth every minute, and I want to let you know all about it so that I can often look back and reflect on some of the happiest moments of my life.

It is my hope that each person who receives this book will find at least one picture that brings back a special memory of an event, a person, a place, a time . . . We have endeavored to show here on these pages a balanced reproduction of your year. This book portrays the more tangible times and things such as banquets, friends, teachers, groups in which you may have participated, and much more. But the greatest events, those of our growth in Christ, cannot be captured by mere photography. I pray that this year has been a turning point in someone's life as he groped for God's outstretched hand and found it within reach.

With much love,

Sheryl Walker

For the Class of 1981

It still makes me laugh to think of the time Cal and Steven jumped into the pool with all their clothes on at the Festival of the Word in Connecticut. I remember the time the H.P.M. kids got into a grummit fight on the way to work and had to come back to the school. Our freshmen year when the quartet sang, Alex's voice cracked and Richard could hardly keep from laughing. I won't forget our last year, all the senior sweeps we had and running up to the front with brooms while Cindy and Smith led our class cheer. We screamed so loudly that we drowned out everyone else. Lastly, I recall Charlie S. dressed up as a bride when we introduced our officers.

I hope they'll never forget these times, or what we had here at P.V.A. as the senior class of 1981, for we had something very special.

There's so much to remember about our academy years here. There have just been so many fun times — times in which I've gotten to know my classmates well, and made the very best friends with them. We're such a close class now. I've shared a lot of dreams with them and have knelt down to bring my problems to the Lord, usually with a concerned friend beside me. They all cared so much, especially when they watched the baptism of Merry Jane, Charlie E., Carol, and Cal.

I'll never forget all the crazy things we've done, like staying up all night our junior year to get the gym ready for graduation and then going out to watch the sun rise, or the time we went canoeing at the Berkshire Leadership Conference when Brian and David tipped over in their canoe and threw Lori, Betsey, Sheryl, and Laurie in the lake, then they all threw Mr. Futsch in. There was the Gramma's Feather Bed skit done by Kelly, Billie, Brian, Cal, and Steve for talent show and Alex's imitation

The Principal's Message

Every year that passes makes the work of a Christian school more exciting. As we count down the days to the actual return of our Lord, the battle lines between good and evil influences become more sharply drawn. The assaults against the Godly development of our young people become more varied and more challenging. We must learn to rely completely on the strong arm and good mind of Jesus Christ. Pioneer Valley Academy must be a place in which the most pervasive memories are those of spiritual victories. May it be so until He comes.

We dedicate our yearbook to someone different each year . . .

Mrs. Wolcott has worked in our cafeteria for a number of years now. She's always shown her concern by doing little things for us like making homemade cookies and brownies to brighten up our meals. The food at the banquets was always so good, and while we'd spend hours getting ready for dates, she'd be in the cafe getting everything perfect for us so that our evening would go just right.

A lot of her time has gone into serving us, and while those who feed us spiritually and mentally are often acknowledged, Mrs. Wolcott has dedicated her time to our physical improvement, which is essential if God's Spirit is to reign in our lives, and she has often gone unthanked. It is for these reasons, because we really appreciate all she's done for us, that we are dedicating our yearbook to Mrs. Willa Wolcott for the year 1980-81.

Fall Picnic

The weather was beautiful for fall picnic. Most everyone participated in the events and had a good time. Steve Flynn set a new high jump record of 5'9¾" and Karen Williams set a new record of 4'8½" for the women's high jump. The best event of the day was the mile. Joe Perrone placed, just beating his old record of 5:20 by 11 seconds. The point total of the freshmen was 18, sophomores 46, juniors 68, and the seniors with a grand total of 116 points.

WINDSCRIPT STAFF: Cal Fowler, Brian Gabrec, Joe Perrone, Wendy Ware, Jon Turk, Sheryl Walker, Patty Witter, Laurie Falvo, Mr. Ulrich Tursch.

The Windscript is our school paper put out every six weeks by the Windscript staff. It mostly contains articles about activities that happen on campus, off campus trips and senior snoops. This year, with the help of all the students and faculty, we reached a goal of 700 subscriptions and enjoyed an extra week off from school for Christmas vacation. Laurie Falvo was the editor, Joe Perrone was the sports reporter, Cal Fowler, Bonnie Rose and Brian Gabree were reporters, Sheryl Walker was the layout editor, Patty Witter and Wendy Ware typed and Jon Turk took the pictures. Mr. Ulrich Tutsch sponsored the Windscript and taught the journalism class.

I'm just hangin around! GYM TEAM: Steve Flynn — Guy's Captain, Rick Bustamante, Don Seimson, Larry Mainetti, Brian Gabree, Dan Beisiegel, Smith Hagopian, Mr. Hill — Sponsor, Karen Williams, Cathy Eaton, Wendy Ware — Girl's Captain, Lori Johnston, Judi Reeves, Not Shown; Julie Hamm — Partorette.

The gymnastic team worked very hard this year. Sure, there were days when they just didn't have the zip they needed. But overall they got things done when they needed to. They stayed together as a team. They believed in giving each other encouragement when they were discouraged. I really believe that the encouragement and the fact that they knew that God was on their side was what made them a TEAM.

They also felt that they were a witnessing team. They visited and performed at many schools. At many of the schools they had a chance to work with the kids. There were usually times for talking to several of them and to tell them what P.V.A. was like. Their trips were greatly enjoyed. I don't think that one of them will forget the good times they shared throughout the year.

The religious activities have given me an opportunity to share Christ with others, whether it's by giving a sermon at one of our churches or visiting with an older person at a nursing home, just making his days pass a little faster.

Ingathering and working at the Big "E" are two other ways I've been able to reach the public, presenting to them that there still are young people who care.

It's not all giving though. I've gained a lot from Bible Camps and weeks of prayer. I think it was these times more than any other programs we've had that made me see I wanted that commitment that will bring us all to heaven.

DECEMBER 14, 1980

"One of the very special things about Christmas that we'll always remember." Kelly hoped it would be, and I think it will.

The cafe was decorated like an old fashioned Christmas scene with a bridge at the entrance door covering a small frozen pond, with ice skates lying at the far side of it. Each of the tables had either a snowman, choirboy, or Christmas tree, made from magazines, placed on it. The backdrop, painted by Patty and Bridget, was a small town at night, with the moon shining above a white church.

Richard, Tim, Don, and Steve played "Home for the Holidays", Alex had a Christmas Medley and Lisa, Val, and Leisha sang "Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire" and "Santa Claus is Coming to Town". Laurie and Sheryl read the story "The Costly Star". The movie shown was "Cheaper by the Dozen", a true story of a family with twelve kids.

Attend a neighborhood school.

Those people standing there by the headline have something in common. They're our next door neighbors! And all the places and things that make those folks so special are within minutes of AUC.

You see Atlantic Union College is in a neighborhood like no other. Our neighborhood has roots that go back over 350 years! And those roots are alive today.

Spend some time with us and Louisa May will introduce you to her "Little Women". You can drop by our Wayside Inn or walk through the solitude of Walden with Henry David.

Just ask Paul to give the word and the American Revolution will explode all over again. Just down the street. And when George shows up with his army, he (and the British) will put you in the thick of the battle. At places like Cambridge, Charlestown, Lexington and Concord.

Share in the discovery of the Advent Message with Ellen, Joseph and Hiram. Feel its power. As it happens. Where it happened. Right here in our neighborhood.

And don't forget that our Patriots have always (pardon the pun) been known for their teamwork. Or that we're known for our teams.

Discover September in New England and jog along the Cape Cod shore. Thrill to the sounds of the Boston Pops and study in the company of distinguished Christian scholars. It's all here. But only here.

Join us next semester and we'll show you why our neighborhood school is like no other. Anywhere.

DON'T RESIST— INSIST ON A GOOD EDUCATION!

Why be mediocre?

Insist on quality. Insist on practical training.

That's what you get at Kettering College of Medical Arts. Kettering Medical Center is located right next door to the college, so you get immediate and thorough clinical training.

You can choose from the following two-year associate degrees:

- Nursing
- Physician Assisting
- Ultrasound Technology
- Medical Technology
- Dietetic Technology
- Biomedical Electronics Technology
- Respiratory Therapy
- Radiology

Graduates of KCMA consistently outperform other graduates on health profession examinations. Most of last year's graduates were hired by good employers before they graduated.

And because of endowments, tuition costs you less than academy!

If you insist on the best in practical learning, call the office of admissions collect at 513-296-7228. Or write for a curriculum handbook.

"Let's stock up while we can."

"Ah, excuse me?"

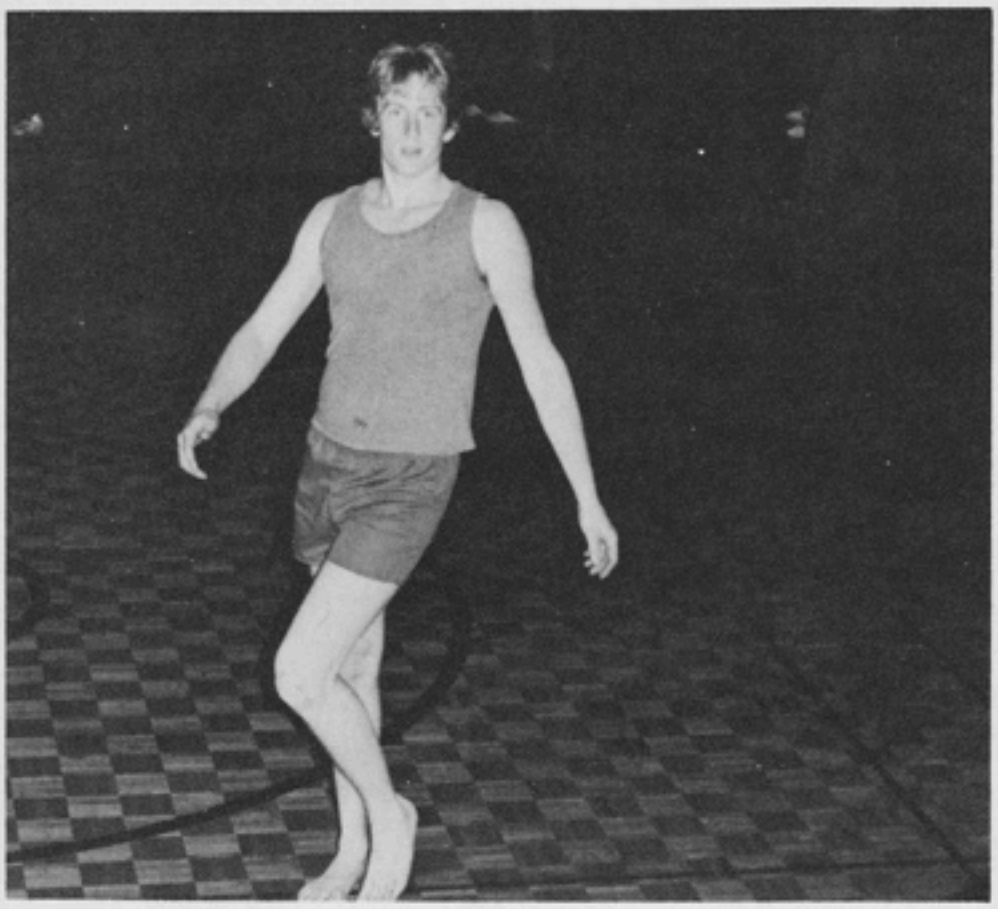

So you don't want your picture in the yearbook, Scott?

"Don't you know you can't ski without snow?"

"And you think you need new shoes do you?"

Tim poses for Mr. Legs contest.

"How did I get on stage dressed like this?"

Maria suffers stage fright .

The audience admires Mr. Opp's new lady friend.

"So, how do I look it up if I can't spell it?"

I'm glad I've revealed to you the secrets of my year — the fun times I've had, the growing I've done, and the very special people I've known.

Store them quietly upon your pages and from time to time pick you up, dust you off, and sit alone somewhere to recapture what I've known here. I may laugh at some things, become sad and thoughtful at others, and at some point in my life you may become quite forgotten. But I wanted you to know it all for then you'll always be there to remind me that P.V.A. was a very beautiful place to be.

Sincerely, alex
