P.O.A.

"C oncern for others." This is the daily duty, in this life,
 O f every active Christian. I would like to challenge you N ow to gather up the tattered threads of Concern, and weave a
 C oncise pattern of genuine interest in other people. Our E very act will some day be called into account before our R edeemer and Maker. His great Concern for us will N ever reach fruition until we learn to share it with others.

F reedom will never be more than a word
 O ver which people fight if we are content to R elinquish our responsibility toward others to the Devil.

O nly as the challenge is SQUARELY MET by each will T here be the SUCCESS we each seek. Only as the H eart yearns for the Saviour will there be the E arnest endeavor to do His will. Only as we have
 'R ecompense unto the reward' will we be rewarded.
 Only as we rid our lives of S elf will we demonstrate true Concern for others.

JUNIORS

A black and white photograph of a cloudy sky. The clouds are soft and textured, filling most of the frame. At the very bottom, there is a dark, silhouetted horizon line, possibly representing trees or a distant shore. The overall tone is monochromatic and atmospheric.
